Notice for Friday, November 20, 2020:

We are counting Inventory on Friday, the 20th.

You may still order online, but orders placed on Friday may not be processed until Monday, the 23rd.

If we finish counting inventory by early afternoon on the 20th, we will begin processing orders depending on two factors.

- 1.) First-come, first-serve basis
- 2.) The chosen shipping method – For example: Next day air freight orders will be processed first, followed by 2nd Day, then 3Day, etc. Other shipping methods, such as Priority Mail and Ground may not leave until Monday.

No refunds will be given for any shipping delays due to inventory.

In case of an emergency, we do have limited staff answering the phones and monitoring our email, so please feel free to contact us.
